DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-13 in the reply filed on September 16, 2004 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that other than different classifications, no other reason is provided for why searching both inventions would be difficult or burdensome. This is not found persuasive because applicant has not shown or argued how the article may not be made by the materially different process discussed in the previous office action.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rigney et al (US 6,455,167). Rigney teaches a coating for a turbine engine component comprising a first layer of alumina, a second metal layer, and a third ceramic layer (col. 7, lines 20-55). The metal layer may include Pt (col. 6, lines 10-15). Regarding claim 9, the first layer is alumina. Regarding claims 10 and 11, the alumina layer may be less than 1 to about 10 microns.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-7 are allowed.

Art Unit: 1775

Claims 12 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Amendments to claim 1 have overcome the rejections over Nagaraj '323, Nagaraj' 866, Nagaraj '263, and Allen '987, and therefore claims 1-7 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8-11 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
